

RICHARD H. McCLURE

Richard H. (Rich) McClure is president of UniGroup, Inc., the parent of specialized transportation companies United Van Lines, LLC and Mayflower Transit, LLC, as well as related subsidiaries. United is the nation's largest mover; Mayflower is the third-largest.

UniGroup's combined 2007 revenues of $2.2 billion make it one of the leading specialized transportation businesses in the United States and, according to the annual FORBES magazine listing, one of the nation's 150 largest privately owned companies. In addition to United Van Lines and Mayflower Transit, UniGroup owns Vanliner Group, Inc., which provides specialized insurance coverages to the moving/storage industry; Total Transportation Services, Inc., which sells and leases moving vans, and provides other equipment and supplies for professional movers; and UniGroup Worldwide, Inc., a global mobility management company. Among his corporate responsibilities, McClure is chief executive officer of all of UniGroup's operating subsidiaries.

McClure was named to his current position in April 2002. He originally joined the UniGroup companies in 1995, serving for two years as executive vice president and chief operating officer of United Van Lines. He also served as president of UniGroup Worldwide.

Prior to joining the UniGroup management team, McClure was a banking executive with Central Bancompany of Missouri, a holding company with assets of $6 billion. From 1985 to 1992, he was chief of staff for then-Missouri Governor/and former U.S. Attorney General John Ashcroft. Previously, McClure was deputy chief of staff and assistant to Illinois Governor Jim Thompson, and director of the Illinois Department of Central Management Services.

A native of Springfield, Missouri, McClure earned his bachelor's degree in management from Missouri State University and his master's degree from The Maxwell School of Syracuse University. He is president of Civic Progress, whose members include the top 30 St. Louis companies who gather with the objective of working toward solutions to regional issues and challenges, and is on the board of the Regional Commerce and Growth Association. McClure is the past chairman of Greater St. Louis, Inc., a five-year, $20 million economic development campaign. Additionally, McClure serves on the boards of St. Louis Young Life; BJC HealthCare; Central Bancompany; and Missouri Baptist Medical Center, in addition to serving on the Board of Governors of Opportunity International, an organization dedicated to fighting global poverty through microenterprise. He also serves on the executive board of the St. Louis Area Boy Scouts of America.

McClure and his wife Sharon have been married for 30 years and have two children -- Ryan, a journalism school graduate from the University of Missouri-Columbia; and Lindsay, a senior at Wheaton College, Wheaton, Illinois.
